

To: Nattis, Randy[Nattis.Randy@epa.gov]
From: Keith Lane
Sent: Thur 2/20/2014 5:19:35 PM
Subject: Re: Nat Geo/Uranium Story

Hi Randy,

I trust you are doing well.

I am trying to figure something out for my article. I remember you telling me that if you had a way to measure the levels of gamma radiation at Haystack that the needle would spike. I can't seem to find a report verifying this. Does one exist? I'd like to find a way to put those levels of radiation into perspective.

Much appreciated,

Keith